

Elise's Teddy Bear Pattern

I didn't have my pattern written out, as I have it memorized, so I just typed it up. Hope it works for you. Let me know if I made any errors.

This is the pattern for my bear::

The teddy can be made with any yarn and appropriate hook for the thickness of your yarn. I use a size F hook and sport weight (#3) yarn, and this makes a bear that is approximately 8.5 inches from ear to toes. A bigger hook and thicker yarn will make a larger bear.

Head:

Rnd 1: Make 6 sc in magic circle

Stuff head

Rnd. 16: sc 2 together around (6)

Fasten Off

Note: I add the safety eyes after round 12 of the head. Eyes should be placed in round 9. I also sew the muzzle on at this point, before finishing and stuffing the head.

For extra safety, I back the eyes with a bit of interfacing, and add a drop of glue before adding the back. You could also embroider eyes if you choose.

Finishing.

Attach safety eyes and nose (I back each with a small piece of interfacing so they can't pull through crochet stitches, and add a dab of glue for added security before attaching the back.)

Lightly Stuff Nose and sew into position.

Sew on Ears.

Stuff Body and Sew Head to body.

Stuff Arms and Sew to body.

Stuff Legs and Sew to body.

IF you want a SITTING DOWN TEDDY BEAR Stuff legs HALFWAY. Secure to the underside of the body. This helps teddy sit.
